Yuma County Hunters Watch with Interest: Progress of Proposed Legislation which will Mean Much to County Sportsmen.

where County hunters are keenly interested in the proposed State Game Commission at Harrisburg, which when a number of matters pertaining to the game laws of the state will be taken up. Two of the questions on the agenda of much importance to local sportsmen.

The first of these is the license fee for all hunters in Pennsylvania. The measure has been much opposed by hunters in the state. The license fee would be imposed on one who hunt only on their own lands or land leased by them.

The question of establishing a closed season for several years for deer in the northwestern corner of the state. A number of bucks will also be taken up at this meeting and those who answered several weeks on South Carolina have traded opinions re the subject.

Numerous suggestions for revision of game laws are being heard of all ing sent to the state authorities and legislative candidates. It is the hope of many active in game protection the state to have a definite legislative program laid out and to this end plans to ascertain just what conditions prevail will be taken. The commission with its wardens and assistants will probably be better able to furnish information than anyone else.

LECTION OFFICERS WILL HAVE HARD TASK

The election officers will have a suspenseful task on their hands. They will have a big ticket to struggle with. There are eight columns of electoral delegates. All the columns contain the names of 28 electoral candidates with the exception of the Industrial ticket, which only has 21 names. There are names on the electoral part of the ticket.

FARMERS' DAY BIG SUCCESS

Large Number of County People Came to Gettysburg to Visit Its
One Day Fair. Fine Exhibits and Everybody Had Good Time.

Gettysburg's first annual Farmers' Day was one of great big success according to the maximum verdict of all of the farmers and country people who were gathered in the town on a single day. The weather was just what was needed, and early in the morning every road leading to Gettysburg had to be closed to traffic.

The exhibits were numerous and well arranged. In the main hall of the Adams County's farmers in agriculture and to their wives in the art of housekeeping. Every Gettysburg in the long list of exhibitors had its share of the show and grace. From vegetable growers and all the other products of farm and garden, together with cereals, fruits, and many other products of the kitchen, were shown. The thousands according to actual count while heavy work and odd articles were on hand in plenty.

His judges, starting early in the day for the county fair, and the fall and were starting at a low time to pick the most of the very fine for the county of the prize. The judges were: S. H. Chubb of New York, J. H. Baughman of Adams County, John Black, of Carlisle; Mrs. Clara Robert of Gettysburg; Mrs. George Robert of Carlisle; Mrs. Clara Robert of Gettysburg. They took two appearances and were seen in plans to place exhibits and taking judging the winners with the utmost fairness and impartiality. The complete list will be ready for publication on Tuesday morning.

The crowd of visitors on the town resembled even the fastest horses of the show and Farmers' Day was a success in character and it was a good day for the crowd.

The setting gathering was happy and taking itself. It was the first time Adams County had just in itself these two old fair days and it was a grand big success. The day was a grand big success. The day was a grand big success.

One of the main attractions of the day was the arrival of a lot of animals. The day was a grand big success. The day was a grand big success.
